Achieving excellence together

Monday 13th March, 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing with an update about the staffing of 3T.

Ms Thomas is returning from her absence and spent some time in school today with the class. As of this week, she will be beginning to take over her teaching duties once again.

Over the next few weeks, Ms Thomas will be increasing the amount of time that she spends in school, returning to her full teaching capacity during the first half of the Summer term. Each week, she will increase the amount of the teaching in class. During this period of transition, Ms Thomas and Mr Taylor will also spend some time teaching the class together.

Mr Taylor will continue to teach the class while Ms Thomas is building up to full time teaching.

We are all very pleased that Ms Thomas is returning to work and she appreciates well wishes. However, she has requested she is not asked for details about her absence.

We thank you for your support over the last few months.

Yours sincerely,

Ms. Z. McIntosh
