IMAGINE A STORY 2023/24 PARENTAL PERMISSION FORM

Name of project or activity: Imagine a Story: A Creative Writing Project for Schools

Your child is taking part in this year's Imagine a Story project with the Southbank Centre. This is a collaborative creative writing project where your child will be contributing to a collection of short stories, alongside their classmates, that will be professionally published. We would like to print every child's full name in the back of the book to show their contribution to the publication. Every participating child and school will receive a copy of their published book. The book will not be commercially available and will not be distributed beyond the project remit.

- Yes, I give permission for my child's full name to be printed in the published book for the Imagine a Story project.
- No, I do NOT give my permission for my child's name to appear in print as part of this project.
